“ To Bennett,

From the first time we met, you made me feel welcome with your easy going smile. You were always busy helping your family, sharing your talents, making things easier for anyone you cared for. Being invited in, to witness the true love, friendship and brotherhood you showed your family has been a beautiful gift to me. Thank you for sharing this, for being my friend, and for being such a wonderful big brother to my only child.

I will miss you!

“ Those we love remain with us
For love itself lives on,
And cherished memories never fade
Because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be
More than a thought apart,
Far as long as there is memory,
They'll live on in the heart. ~Anonymous

Laura, may you and your loved ones find strength in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends.

“ Goodbye Bennett... till we meet again on the Other Side. I can hear your voice in my head, as I hear you speak from memories of times past. I will never forget you man. Death is Nothing at All

by Canon Henry Scott-Holland

Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped away into the next room.

I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you have always used to. Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, let it be spoken without effect, without a trace of shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval somewhere very near, just around the corner.

All is well. Nothing is past; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before. How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!
