“ Dear Aunt Tracey my heart goes out to you n your in my prayers!! Joe truly was an amazing man who I grew to love dearly n admire when you guys opened up your home to me when I was just 14. I remember him trying to get me to laugh so I'd come out my shell and feel more welcomed, comfortable and part of the family. It was a rough time in my life, but y'all made me feel so loved!

I think one my favorite memories of dear O' Uncle Joe is... One day I was bored out my mind, n it was just me n him home and he asked if I wanted to learn how to play some penny anti poker just as long as I didn't tell my mom. So he got out deck of cards, pad of paper n pen. We sat in the living room on the floor n he wrote me a cheat sheet of what beats what and what they were called, royal flush, flush, straight etc. We did a few practice runs of each game so I could get da hang of it, once I got very basics down it was time to start throwing money down. He had to of had patience of a saint while teaching all those games to me, cuz I'd get so confused on which game was which n how to deal out da cards. We'd each take turns pickn what game out da many we'd play next hand, whenever I'd b one picking I'd always say Blackjack cuz it was easiest to remember. We spent a lot of days & time playing poker. I felt like such a grown up getn to play poker not alone for money!! Whenever we'd b done playing for the day, if he won most my change he'd always give it back plus a little more told me keep it I might need it or save it for next time. And if I actually managed to get some of his, which he probably let me but he'd never would let me give his back to him. He'd stand up give a little laugh, and tell me I won every penny of it. He was always so great to me and I still remember his laugh!! Whenever I think of poker I think of him and how many hours we spent on floor playing on the coffee table!! That's both one my fav memories of living in Colorado with y'all and of him!!

I'm glad I got the chance to talk to him during your last visit back to Ohio with Yvonne. It was so nice hearing his voice and catching up with him. He will be truly missed but never forgotten! I love you Aunt Tracey I'm sending you my love
