

Julie M. Bible

April 20, 1933 - December 22, 2017

Julie Marie Mosco-Bible born April 20, 1933 passed into eternal life December 22, 2017 in Pueblo, CO. She was predeceased by her parents Louis and Mary and her spouse Gerald (Jerry, Jack) Bible.

Julie is survived by her loving children Eric and Michael Bible of Pueblo West, Stephen (Elizabeth) Bible of Denver, Jim (Lynn) Bible of San Diego, Kim (Bruce) Skousen of San Bernardino, numerous nephews, nieces, cousins and grandchildren and the loves of her life, her grandchildren Jack and Annie Bible, Corey Hartland, and great-grandson Jimmy as well as her family pet "BABY" Jade. Also surviving is special "sista" Mary Lou Gallegos, sister Velvet (Dwayne) Neiderstadt, many friends and Aunts Eleanor Mosco and Jean Bible.

Julie touched so many people's lives and was truly an inspiration and faithful friend. She graduated from Pueblo Catholic High School and retired from CSU-Pueblo where she made many loving friends. She also worked at Legacy Commons Assisted Living and volunteered at SRDA. Julie enjoyed helping others, spending time with her dogs and visiting with friends and family, even it was just over the phone. She liked spending time using her laptop looking at recipes, playing games and keeping in touch on Facebook. She immensely loved her faith, family, friends and a good joke. She will surely be missed by all. Let us all mourn the passing of Julie from our current life, yet celebrate her wonderful existence and how she touched us all.
