“ Susan and family, I just heard of Kevin's passing and am so sad. Many of my nearly 50 years in funeral service were shared with Kevin at the helm, guiding, teaching, encouraging, and bringing out the best in everyone who shared this noble profession. I'll never forget him. Rest in God's peace, Kevin and "thank you".

“ Susan and Family, So sad to hear about Kevin. Many, many years ago during the Almont portion of Kevin's life, I was fortunate to have Kevin as my boss. (Don't tell Dave Dolsen, but Kevin was my favorite male boss!) Even though funerals are a serious business, I truly enjoyed my time working with Kevin, George, and Pete. What I learned in those 17 years really helped propel me in my future accounting career. I can still recite one of Kevin's many humorous limericks. We often heard more of them when he had a bit more to drink. (: We had many fun company parties. Kevin always seemed to find joy in life, so as you walk through this time of grief, take time to treasure the wonderful memorable moments that zany Kevin gave you! Love,

“ Kevin was a funny guy. With a serious face he would make everybody laugh. I'm so sorry I didn't know he was sick. I saw him in the park with a dog a few years ago. We will all remember Kevin forever. Heartfelt condolences, Christy Furman

“ Dear Susan and Family:

My heartfelt condolences to you and the family. Kevin had a rare ability to make a person feel as if our presence was a joy to him. And then we simply wanted to hang around to rejoice in his smile and brilliant sense of humor. He will be missed. Truly, a special soul.

“ Susan and Family

Kevin was a special person who never failed to greet me with a "Hello Tiny". . Over about a 3 year period in the early 80's he handled the funeral services for both my parents and my aunt and uncle. A difficult time that he helped me through with genuine grace and concern. He was instrumental in asking me to join the Parkview Medical Board in 1984 and he was an incredible force in helping the hospital become a preferred provider in Pueblo. Kevin always put "Pueblo First". He will be missed. John Panepinto

“ Kevin was a very special person to me from the first time I met him as a student in my math class at Keating to the last time I saw him in his job at Roselawn. He was always helping other people achieve their needs. We were Kiwanians together and I appreciated his leadership with the youth programs. He treated my mother as if she was his wonderful Grandmother as they planned her funeral services. His delightful laugh and big smile lifted many a heart. I will cherish the memories I have of him until my last day.

May the Lord bless your family during this difficult time.

“ Damn, Kev. You will be missed. Thank you for opening up a little sports bar and grill called "Andy McCarthy's" that turned out to be the best gift ever for Jon and me. Without you and others taking the step to make that place a reality, Jon and I never would have met. Jon would never would have had the opportunities for the next 10 years that he had. You were special. I will never forget how everytime you saw me, you managed to plant a kiss on my forehead in the same exact spot everytime and say, "What's up, kid?" We will have a Coors Light in your honor today. Thank you for everything.

“ I knew Kevin from the Almont days, that was many years ago. I worked under Kevin's direction until around 2005, and I'm still in the funeral industry because of him. He was my inspiration and mentor. He will be greatly missed by many.

“ Kevin was my mentor, my teacher, and my friend. Kevin and his father George inspired me to begin a new career in funeral service in 1989, and I continue in the profession today. He was truly one-of-a-kind.

“ I worked for George F. McCarthy Almont Funeral Home in the mid-70's while attending the then-University of Southern Colorado. What an honor it was to work for the legendary George McCarthy and his son, the now equally legendary Kevin McCarthy. They were true gentlemen and professionals who deeply loved Pueblo. --Dick Wadhams
