

Margarito Carlos Sisneros

March 27, 1927 - October 15, 2017

Margarito Carlos Sisneros, “Mag”, “Grandpa”, went to be with the Lord on October 15, 2017. Margarito was born on March 27, 1927 in Wagon Mound, New Mexico. He is survived by his two daughters, Margi (Phil) Gribble, and Mary Rose “Gypsy” (Robert) Clearo; his beloved grandchildren, Luke McMurtree, McKayla McMurtree (Chuck Wodiuk), Cheyenne McMurtree (Andy Mares), Harmony Clearo, Noah Clearo, Jake Gribble and Jesse Gribble (Janae); great grandchildren, Eli, Liam and Gabriella McMurtree, Cali Rose and Willow Eve Wodiuk; and baby boy Mares, expected in February. Margarito is preceded in death by his loving wife of thirty-one years, Irene “Lola” Sisneros; his parents, Rosinaldo and Benita Sisneros; seven brothers and sisters; and many other friends and family members. He was honorably discharged from the U.S. Army in 1947 after two years of service, and was employed as a carpenter in box and crate at the Pueblo Army Depot. He retired after 30 plus years, and it was there that he met and kept many lifelong friends including his beautiful wife. After retirement, he returned to work as a driver for six years at SRDA. Dad enjoyed playing and watching live sports, especially the Yankees, trips to Cripple Creek with Luke, crossword puzzles, woodworking, reading, music, and was a fantastic story teller. Above all, he loved spending time with his family, and never ceased to be there for them in any capacity. He will be remembered for his endless generosity, his infinite wisdom, his strong will and his delightful sense of humor. Thank you for everything Dad, your memory will live forever in our hearts, until we meet again. “Vaya Con Dios!” Recitation of the Rosary will be 6:00pm, Thursday, Oct 19, 2017 at Holy Family Church. Mass of the Resurrection will be 11:00am, Friday, Oct 20, 2017 at Holy Family Church. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery. Online condolences can be made at roselawnpueblo.org.
