Ted's Mother Mary and my Dad Sam were brother and sister. They grew up in a large, boisterous Italian family. Mary had red hair and a fiery personality to match but she had a good heart and that is what Ted inherited from her. He was a person with a good heart whom everyone liked. My children have many happy memories of Uncle Teddy and his years running the Irish Pub. As they grew up and reached legal drinking age, they enjoyed visiting with Ted at the Pub and I expect they also enjoyed the free beer as well .

Recently they have shared stories with me about working on Ted's ranch and the fun they had there being with Ted. They learned about life and the many ups and downs that life throws at us.

In recent years my two brothers, George whose real name is Sam and my brother Bob who now goes by the name of Roberto Cardinale , more artistic you know, try and spend a few days together reliving our youth and sharing memories. Several years ago we spent three days in Cuchara and invited Ted to join us and share his memories of our early years. We had a wonderful time being with Ted as he was always entertaining. The stories always got better as we sat at the Dog Bar drinking a few beers.

I have tried to stay in touch with Ted visiting him at home and in the hospital and talking with him on a weekly basis. When ever I would call Ted, his first words were usually, "I was just going to call you" and my words were, "I knew you were" and then we would both laugh. Maybe some of you have had that same conversation with Ted I used to kid Ted and tell him that he needed to have a "plan B" and then I would joke and say " but first you need a plan A

But that was not Ted and in a way it made him a person whom everyone liked and more importantly he was happy with his life. He will be missed by all of us.

Rest in peace Ted.

“ In celebrating fond memories of Ted, his gentlemanly-gracious way of living and being a friend to many, I reflect on a youthful time that brings a warm smile to my heart; Ted at his Irish Pub hosted a Halloween Costume Contest, Parading around in a Playboy Bunny costume, friends convinced me to trade costumes with a good friend that was dressed as a flasher in his London Fog trench-coat! As this true-tale is remembered, it was a sure "tail-in" for us to win 1st place-$100. Well, "Drinks for everyone!"...Here's to you Ted and your heart of gold!

“ Ted Calantino

Grew up with him when the Pub had a Pool Hall lots of pranks, drinks and laughs. Grateful to have been able to share all this with Uncle Ted. Thanks for the memories

“ At some unknown future day we will all be the subject of such a notice, but I was not ready for Ted's obituary. We served together for five years in the Marine Corps Reserves. During those days in the early sixties we hung out together after most weekend drills – and especially during the summer camps in California. We also spent many, many happy hours in the Irish Pub – when his Mother was still running the place and afterward.
I last saw Ted at my sister's (Dove Cogen) and Judy's (Ted's spouse) class reunion in 2010. How I let another five years slip by without contact and how I did not learn of Ted's health issues until now are two of my life's unanswered mysteries.
Nonetheless, in my heart Ted will always be a very dear friend.

“ I taught with Ted's wife Judy for many years, and my husband and I were honored to call Ted and Judy friends. We had fun hanging out with them, having dinner, going dancing. We have wonderful memories of those times, especially the New Year's Eve celebrations at the Elks' Lodge. We miss Judy, and now we will miss Ted as well. I pray that they are reunited in heaven and have an eternity together, and some day we will see them again. Our condolences to the family--our thoughts and prayers are with you. “ I worked for Ted as a college senior. I was a back-up bartender for about three months in 1972. He was a great friend to me and all my college buddies. He was a super guy and we talked "old times" and Pueblo when we would occasionally bump into one another through the years. He will be missed by all. Bill Pike

“ I worked for Ted the last 5 years that he was owner of The Irish Pub. Over those 5 years i heard many stories about Ted, he definitely was one of a kind. He gave me many memories and laughs, some tears. The very last day that the Irish Pub was open many of us shared drinks and tears, it was a very sad day, ecspecially for Ted. I will always remember you, boss. Rest with the Lord.

“ My mother and father frequented the Irish Pub in the first years of their marriage and told me of remembering little "Teddy" sitting at the edge of the bar. All my friends and I turned it into or local hangout as young adults and never missed a St. Patrick's Day celebration there. When my husband and I left Pueblo we held our going away party in the back room, and Ted loaned us a horse trailer to move our furniture to Loveland. We made friends with all the other "regulars" and became a community unto ourselves. Ted was always kind and friendly to us, taking us into the fold and including us in the birthday parties at "Rancho Borracho." What a sad day for Pueblo when he sold the Irish Pub, overshadowed only by the sadness of now losing Ted. We saw him a few years ago at the Chile Festival, and I gave him a big hug and visited for a while. He looked good, still handsome! He leaves a legacy of an era that so many will forever hold in their hearts.

“ Ted was one of the nicest in Pueblo. Years ago, the Irish Pub was the meeting place for all of the teachers on Friday nights. Many a Friday night I spent with my fellow teachers, Ted's mother, and Ted singing with the entertainment they had in the back room. Ted was always friendly with all of his clientele and was a real leader for the city of Pueblo. I pray that all of his family be blessed with special memories that give them comfort and that God holds all in His hands to sustain all through the next days and weeks ahead. May all of heaven rejoice at Ted's arrival! Blessings to all.

“ So many great, old memories of Ted and the Irish Pub. We cherish the fact that we were able to spend some time here in NM with Judy and Ted before her passing some years back...and now they are together forever continuing to share their great love and devotion for one another. God Speed, old friend.

And, hugs to Madi.....you had fantastic grandparents!

“ I sang at the Irish Pub for my Uncle Steve and his new bride, Caroline during their wedding reception there. Great Uncle Theo "paid" me with a 3.2 beer. (I was of legal drinking age then.) I also have an earlier memory of Uncle Theo riding in to our Nana's farm on a motorcycle and Dad saying "hey, it's my Uncle Theo!" We sure have a colorful family. My thoughts and prayers are with all who mourn his passing.
