

Abe Lopez

April 3, 1949 - January 16, 2022

Abe Lopez, 72, died unexpectedly, Jan. 16, while walking (one of his favorite pastimes). Abe was born in Pueblo, Colo., to Jose and Josie Lopez and preceded in death by his father; his daughter, Rae Ann; and sister-in-law, Gail Montoya. He is survived by three children, Renee of Mesa, Ariz., JJ (Kareen) and Stevie (Shaunna) of Pueblo; mother of his children, Sandy Wagner; grandchildren, Alyssa, Vanessa, Devin, JJ Jr, Natassia, Araya and Olivia; great-granddaughter, Aria; and a great-grandchild on the way; siblings, Frank (Phyllis), Pat, Tim, Joyce (Dennis), Deena, Ceal (Ron) and Chris (Frank); as well as numerous family and friends, who all hold him dearly in memory. Abe was well-known from working at Safeway, being on the Grand Jury and from his walks about Pueblo. A friendly guy who engaged in conversation, he'd leave you happily entertained. He was an amateur artist, photographer and trivia buff with numerous hobbies. A cherished memory of his mother's reflects his generosity. In her mind's eye, he is smiling, walking down the alley with goodies to share from work. His sisters also loved to get into his hidden goodies (pistachios). Unfortunately, the shells were dyed red in the olden days. The girls, with their stained fingers, did not get away with it. Although forgiven, they became notorious as characters in one of his favorite stories. May he rest in peace. Services will be held Friday, Feb. 4, 2022, at St. Therese Catholic Church, Pueblo, the Rosary will begin at 9:30 a.m., followed by the memorial Mass at 10 a.m. Please visit www.roselawnpueblo.org to leave online condolences.
