

Adam Linenberger

January 14, 1983 - June 19, 2023

Adam Linenberger, 40, passed away June 19, 2023 at his home in Pueblo, Colorado.

He was born January 14, 1983 in Garden City, Kansas, to Kelly and Tracee Linenberger. After high school, he moved to Sandy, Utah and then moved to Pueblo, Colorado where he lived for the past 15 years.

Adam had many creative talents. He loved to hunt, go trapshooting, fish, camp out in the wilderness, play a good game of frisbee golf, fly his drone around the yard, and then go into the shop where he would create wooden items.

His love of science brought him to the Pueblo Community College where he was a tutor in the science department. He would tutor classes like anatomy physiology, microbiology, and biology.

Adam is survived by his father, Kelly Linenberger, mother, Tracee Linenberger, a brother, Andy Linenberger, Sister-in-law, Alisha Linenberger, Aunt, Kim Garner, Aunt, Karen, Aunt Kyla, nieces and nephews.

He is preceded by his grandfather, Jack Linenberger, grandmother, Phyllis Linenberger, grandfather, Jack Landgraf, Grandmother, Jackie Landgraf, Uncle, Marc Landgraf, Uncle, Doug Landgraf, Aunt, Patti Landgraf.

Tribute Wall

AK

“ Aunt K. planted a grove of 3 Memorial Trees in honor of Adam Linenberger.

Aunt K. - July 20, 2023 at 06:02 PM

AK

“ Adam I will miss your smile, your sense of humor and loved how you treated people with your kindness. Your work on the lathe was so beautiful, like you are, fly high!

Aunt Kyla - July 20, 2023 at 05:56 PM