

Alfred D Aguero

October 30, 1942 - May 17, 2023

“Alfred David Aguero, 80, born on October 30, 1942, on smelter hill with his twin brother, Arthur. He stepped into eternity on May 17, 2023, surrounded by his family. He is preceded in death by his parents, Vera Aguero and Bennie Villanueva; and the love of his life, Leilani Aguero. He is also preceded by his guardians, Simon and Conception Aguero who raised him on smelter hill; brothers, Simon Aguero, Albert Aguero, Ignacio “Nash” Aguero, Joe Aguero, Nick Aguero and Arthur Aguero; sisters, Ventura Chavez, Hope Chavez, Margaret Carbajal, Dolores Pena, Mary-Louise Solano; Cousin, Tom Aguero; and, Goddaughter, Tracy Rothmier. He is survived by his loving children, Alfred (Annette) and Janine, and his grandchildren, Amanda, Aaron and Diego; Goddaughters, Trina, Vera, Marisa; Godson, Patrick; brothers, Tony Aguero and Bennie Villanueva; sister, Liz Villanueva. Al was a Navy veteran, iron worker millwright, a refrigeration technician, wood worker, stained glass artist, puzzle master, classic car builder and all-around handyman. Whenever someone needed anything, he was always there to help. There was no more devoted man to family and friends than Al. His work ethic and dedication were an example to everyone. He loved his music, classic autos, watching college football, but most of all helping others. Special recognition to his good friend, Bob Padilla, for all of his dedication, friendship and those Sunday morning breakfasts; the Gonzales family (Netters, Frank and Max) for their unselfish devotion and willingness to help; and all of his nieces and nephews whose visits he always enjoyed. Special thank you to the NTICU nursing staff at Parkview medical center for their tireless support. He will be missed and never forgotten. Until we meet again, fair winds and following seas!”
