

Alicia Angelina Vigil

September 21, 1932 - May 17, 2015

Heaven has a new angel. Alicia A. Vigil was called home on May 17. On May 17th, Heaven received a new angel. At the age of 82, Alicia A. Vigil is now smiling upon us from heaven. Alicia is survived by her daughters, Elizabeth and Angelina. Preceded in death, Alicia is reunited with her husband, Cassie; her sons, Terry and Donald; son-in-law Henry A. Madrid. At the present time there's only two surviving siblings, Mary Quintana and Arthur Aragon. In Las Vegas, New Mexico, Alicia was born into a large family consisting of six sisters and seven brothers. At the tender age of 17, Alicia married Cassie Vigil and moved to Pueblo, Colorado. Alicia had the opportunity to travel most of the United States with her husband. Their adventures also included Mexico and Australia. Life is very precious and Alicia knew it. When not traveling, she made every moment count. From tending to her massive garden to baking a delicious pie, Alicia was always up to something. And her beautiful blankets and pillows attest to her love for crocheting. With a blink of an eye, one's life can quickly transition to its grand finale. Alicia's positive impact on her friends and family will forever be remembered. Memorial Service will be 1:00pm, Tuesday, May 26, 2015 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel.

Cemetery Details

Rosealwn Cemetery

1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006