“ I met “Nea” while I was going through one of the absolute most difficult, scary times of my life. We shared a bunk for 3 months and had countless nights of tears, laughter, screaming out our dreams and hopes to God, praying aloud together, that He would hear us, above the din of the rest of the world, and grant us that peace we so desired. And now, you have that peace, my lovely friend. I have never, and will never, meet anyone like Andonia. She gave me strength and unconditional, nonjudgmental love and support like no other. What a beautiful soul, which I had the absolute honor to spend those 3 months with. Nea described her whole family, so I felt I got to “know” what an amazing, loving family she had...and still has! Nea, you will be missed by us all. You are now above us all, with the Lord in Heaven, and I know this because you loved God and often expressed that love aloud and proud, to be a God-loving woman. May your beauty and joyful heart live on in your children! I can still see that amazing smile the Lord gave you! See you in Heaven, dearest friend! Jennie “Teacher” O.

“ I had Adonia when I was a counselor at Pueblo West Middle School. I loved her. She and her mother made me a wall hanging of "Children Learn What They Live". I always had it hanging on my office wall in my counseling office. I remember her father also. Rest in peace, Adonia.

Nia, There are so many memories that keep passing through my mind. Nobody on this planet ever did what we did That super bowl Sunday a couple decades ago! It is a secret that will be kept and cherished, just like our many years of friendship before these last few. I love you and To the Bouzos family and extended family God Bless you all.. You should take comfort in knowing that Nia seen things that a lot of us will never see or begin to experience, both good and bad and she still smiled through it all. Blessings <3
