“ My Sincere Condolences to Theresa and family.
The minute I started driving a bus, Tony took me under his wing and set me straight about the " do's and don't's" about driving a bus and keeping out of "managements crosshairs" (Tony's quote), which kept me out of trouble many times. I once told him that I listened to every word because he reminded me of a mob boss I had seen in a movie once. He winked his eye, and had a good laugh about that one. Tony will always have my utmost respect, because of his straightforward advice, and always with a sense of humor. I'm going to Miss You My Friend. Keep your eyes on the road and watch out for those tight corners....

Theresa and family, my sincere condolences. Not unlike Judy Saldona, Tony took me under his wing at Pueblo Transit. He always told me if I need anything, just ask. He had and has a huge heart. He was like a big brother to me. He literally pulled me and my dad out of a ditch on Overton road. Two vehicles buried in sand near the river Bank. I prayed loudly "Jesus!" And Tony showed up! True story. I loved this man. He made my life bearable when my personal life was unbearable year ago. Just like Jesus! Tony was not perfect but he loved people deeply! Perfectly! I miss him

“ I grew up riding the buses. Tony watched me grow up. He gave me hard time every time he saw me- one of the few who could make me laugh on a bad day. He was a good guy. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Love Berta aka Weasel ❤️
