

Arthur Orlando Gonzales

September 12, 1951 - January 12, 2017

Arthur Gonzales, 65, was called home on Jan 12, 2017. Preceded in death by his dad Eliseo Gonzales, his mom Josephine Gonzales, his brother John Gonzales, his sister Carla Gonzales, his God daughter Crystal Valdez, and father and mother-in-law Albert and Virginia Cruz. Survived by his wife of 43 years, JoAnn Gonzales; children, Tony, Chris (Alex), Tommy (Jennifer), and Sabrina Gonzales; grandkids, Isaac, Aaden, Taalyn, Kiley, Levi, and Andrew; sisters, Thelma (Richard) Gomez, and Clara (John) Armenta, and numerous nieces, nephews, and in-laws.

Art was a drywaller for 45 years. He loved his work and took pride in all the things he did. His work was not complete until he was satisfied and could call it "a work of Art." Hanging drywall was not just a job for Art, it was his passion. He enjoyed teaching others the craft of remodeling and finishing homes. Along with drywall, Art worked as a maintenance man for numerous companies. He was a jack of all trades. He could fix anything involving electricity, plumbing, pools, boilers, cars, and water heaters. Art could fix anything. There was no problem he couldn't fix and there wasn't a tool he didn't have... multiples of. When Art wasn't working or was on his way to a side job, he would stop at any flea market, yard sale, or thrift store. You could say this was his hobby. Art had a love for tools and he collected them. Art didn't relax often, but when he did, he had his chair, remote controls, TV, and all his VCRs. Some of the shows he enjoyed were Survivor, Big Brother, any court show, This Old House, or anything on Create. Art was an avid classic car enthusiast. He owned multiple classic cars and went to car shows whenever they were in town.

There are just no words, Art was such an amazing husband. He always made sure JoAnn was always taken care of. It was always JoAnn and the kids first. Art would work all the time. That's just what he loved doing. JoAnn could never convince him to take a day off. He just always had to keep moving. Saturdays were his days for his flea market and pawn shops. Art tried his hardest to always keep everyone happy. Wanted to aim to please, that was his pride. He was a very proud man.

Art was strict with his kids, but deep down he was a big softie. He bonded with his kids by teaching them about his passion, drywall. Art always put his kids first. He would work multiple side jobs so that his kids would have what they needed or wanted. Art had a heart of gold. He didn't want to see anyone go without. He was very generous and would never ask for anything in return. Art had a unique way of showing his love and support. He always had advice to give. Whether it was about fixing things or just life in general, Art would have a solution.

We love you and will miss you. Rest in peace, you deserve to.

A Funeral Mass will be held 10:30am, Tue, Jan 17, 2017 at St. Francis Xavier Church. At his request cremation will take place.

“ Art,
I can't believe how fast this year has gone by, I think about you everyday. Sometimes I want to call or go by and ask you questions about repair jobs or what to do cause this isn't working then I remember that you are not there. I still bug the family like I promised you, but it is sad to not see you there. I remember this day a year ago like it was yesterday. I hear a song and think of you even though you probably never heard the song before (Bruno Mars Count on me) and I get sad. I miss you and love you. I have peace in my mind knowing that you are not suffering anymore and probably made something or create something in heaven. I bet you have coffee with Mom, Dad, Carla and Johnny. Love and miss you.

“ Uncle Art,

It's still hard to believe that you are gone. I always think back and remember the first time you and grandpa took me to see wrestling at the State Fair when they came to town. That was an experience that I have never forgotten. I remember when you used to take me to the car shows. That was always so fun. I could always ask you a question about working on my vehicles or even the house because you always had a solution. I think what I'm going to miss most is hearing you laugh and the way you joked around with everyone. You held no punches and that is something I have always respected you for. I'm going to miss you very much but I know that I have nothing but great memories of you. Until we run into each other at the Goodwill in heaven. I love you!!!
