“ OLD TESTAMENT READING (First Reading)

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Daniel (12:1-3)

In those days, I, Daniel, mourned and heard this word of the Lord:

*At that time there shall arise
Michael, the great prince,
guardian of your people;*

*It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress
since nations began until that time.*

*At that time your people shall escape,
everyone who is found written in the book.*

*Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake;
Some shall live forever,*

others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.

But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament,

And those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever.

The word of the Lord

NEW TESTAMENT READING (Second Reading)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians (4:13-18)

*We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep,
so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope.*

*For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,*

bring with him those who have fallen asleep..

*Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord,
that we who are alive,*

*who are left until the coming of the Lord,

will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep.

*For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God,
will come down from heaven,
and the dead in Christ will rise first.
Then we who are alive, who are left,
will be caught up together* with them in the clouds
to meet the Lord in the air.
Thus we shall always be with the Lord.
Therefore, console one another with these words.
The word of the Lord*

*A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (15:33-39)
At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.
And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice,
"Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?"
which is translated,
"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"
Some of the bystanders who heard it said,
"Look, he is calling Elijah."
One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed,
and gave it to him to drink, saying,
"Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down."
Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.
The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom.
When the centurion who stood facing him saw how he breathed his last he said,
"Truly this man was the Son of God!"
When the sabbath was over,
Mary Magdalene, Mary, the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go and anoint him.
Very early when the sun had risen,
on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb.
They were saying to one another,*

"Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

*When they looked up,
they saw that the stone had been rolled back;
it was very large.*

On entering the tomb they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe, and they were utterly amazed.

*He said to them, "Do not be amazed!
You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified.*

He has been raised; he is not here.

Behold the place where they laid him."

The Gospel of the Lord.
