“ Betty was a dear friend of the Hunt family. She and my Mom, Mary Hunt, became friends when their families were very young. As Mom and Betty aged, they lost touch but still considered themselves as good friends. We send our condolences to the Belmont family. I'm so sorry I missed them services. Frozen pipes at Mom's house made me miss the services. God bless you all.

“ My beautiful beautiful friend, you are dancing on the streets of gold, with renewed health and perfect vision. You will be missed my precious friend.

Becky, Bonnie and family you were all blessed to have had such a wonderful, caring and thoughtful mother. She was an amazing hardworking lady, in which I was blessed to have had her as a small part of my life. My love, hugs, thoughts and prayers go out to you all in this trying time. May God bless you and give you the comfort and peace you need. With love Carol Gazette
