

Brandon J. Lovato

April 2, 1974 - December 23, 2013

Brandon Lovato, 38, passed away December 23, 2013. Memorial Service will be 2:00pm, Friday January 10, 2014 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel

Tribute Wall

“ To my cousin Brandon, I wish we would have been closer, but now your with the other part of your family, you get to be with Grandma Lola, cousin Simon and his 3 Angels, Rebecca, Katherine, and Leslie, cousin Jason, and my son Baby William, we will miss you very much, my condolences to Aunty Shirley and cousin Lorenzo, your in my prayers and thoughts, if yous need anything please don't hesitat e to call or text me, Love Staci

Anastacia Gonzales - November 18, 2023 at 06:56 AM

“ I went to high school with Brandon. He was always cool with me and had the coolest hairdo's as well. RIP my man...

-David Johnson (SHHS '93)

David Johnson - November 05, 2015 at 01:03 PM

SL

“ He called me Mable and he was my Apple Brown Betty. Which is a story for another time. Just like that one, We have a million inside jokes and we shared about a gabillion more laughs. Like way more laughs than any human should be allowed in about 8 lonng life times.

Our friendship is just a wack-a-do long run on sentence of witty quips and a bunch of random hilarities that all relate to each other. We ALWAYS had adventures. Even just walking down the street. Even just Walking down the stairs. I dont remember ever being bored with him. We would stay up all night just giggling in his apartment. Hours and hours. Literally rolling around on the floor laughing. My mom has been be so angry with us because Ive missed some thanksgivings and easters and a couple family birthdays, even a christmas.

But we were having the time of our lives just being silly together in his apt after another night of a hundred more inside and shared jokes, never realizing all the time that passed.

He made me a better human.

The minute we met we were instantly in love, i mean the exact second i walked past the entrance wall at OG Tracks, and he was standing at bar 1, that second our eyes met it was love. He is my male counter part, a soul mate thru amazing and horrible, and it was kismet.

I wouldnt be me without brando. We were terrible. It just went on and on. I know for a fact we annoyed the eff out of Dave several times. And if you got got Matt and Julie with us, forget about it. It was utterly awesome. And We couldnt help it, because we have funny tourettes. We really should of had our own tv show.

He never stole my thunder, i think, actually, we were each other's thunder. We just bounced off each other and all over the place.

I will never ever ever meet anyone that will share the same rhythm we had. And he Always made me feel loved. Always.

I like to say that i am pie crust flakey but brando is crazy croissant flakey. So I was actually a bit surprised he showed up for his funeral.

A part of me will never be filled and I will never be the same. I love *and miss you kid. Forever.

Your Pal,
Sarah.*

sarah lamoureux - January 22, 2014 at 03:11 AM

DL

“ BJ, we were very sad to hear of your passing. We were also sad to learn that you were in Denver all this time. We would have loved to have known you as a man. We have no doubt that were a man of great kindness and compassion. In our hearts you will always be the intelligent and quiet little boy that we loved with a such a sweet smile. You will be missed. The world has become a shade darker with your absence. Our Love, Dad and Debbie P.S. Shirley and Lorenzo our hearts broke for you that night. We are so very sorry. Lorenzo we have exchanged numbers so please lets keep in touch. Take care of one another.

debbie lovato - January 13, 2014 at 12:59 PM

SW

“ Thank you for sharing this, Angie. Brandon was also a student of mine at Smoky Hill. He was so full of life and positive energy. He was a joy to have in class. This is truly sad news. My prayers to Brandon's family and loved ones. Travis, your words are so heartfelt. The tears are still running down my cheeks. Rest in peace, Brandon.

Sonja Walker

Sonja Walker - January 12, 2014 at 12:24 PM

AP

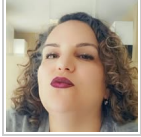

“ Oh my... I just stumbled upon this sad, sad news.... Brandon was a student of mine years ago and more recently a Facebook friend... I will miss his poignant comments and authenticity. Very sad loss... Condolences to his family and friends.

Angie Paccione - January 12, 2014 at 11:09 AM

“ Brandon, 14 years we worked together, Wow! I will never forget the day in 1999 when you came in for your interview all decked out in purple with a silk vest and tie. Then after you started work with the team, your hair color was changed every few weeks. This small town girl had never met anyone like you. Then I got to know you and your quick witty comments followed by a bright smile and unique laugh. Love it! One year the team went all out with a Wizard of Oz theme for Halloween (you dressed as the lion), you were not the cowardly Lion...you had more courage than many of us in this world could ever muster. You showed us that to be ourselves, even if unique, there is a place in this world to belong. May you rest in peace and may you also show others how they belong in Heaven. We will miss you a ton!

Shannon Klena-Powell - January 11, 2014 at 06:24 PM

“ Brando was the coolest friend. I loved him dearly and had the chance to spend many great moments with him. He was an awesome co-worker. I had a great time being his Realtor and looking for apartments with him before he bought his place. Thank you Brando for always treating me like a lady, listening, supporting me and for keeping me grounded all these years. I will miss our "useless Trivia" games, your smiles and all our crazy and sometimes very serious conversations. Many times you told me that you did not want to grow old and now you will be forever young! I will love you and miss always my April Fool's Friend!

Erika Paulino Santana - January 10, 2014 at 09:13 PM

“ 14 files added to the album Memories Album

Roselawn Funeral Home & Cemetery - January 10, 2014 at 02:47 PM

TB

“ Brandon - you were, and will always be, an inspiration to people. Your light will shine for ever in my heart and in my memories. My friendship with you was filled with an honesty that is hard to find these days! I'm thankful for the all the memories. Rock Island, Pizzaz, The Marquis Club, trying to find the spot to go dance all night long. Your honesty about who you are as a person and never being one to give up! Your laugh will never leave my memory. The sound of your chuckle after one of your of many jokes will keep me smiling as you look down from above. I will never forget the day I left Denver to move on in life and the words of encouragement you gave me: "what's the worst thing that can happen Trav? You come back to Colorado where everyone loves you!"

Well I say to you now Brandon that there is good in everything and I know you are finding the good in the new place you are in! I will miss you and I will miss seeing your witty posts about life and the way you saw it! Thanks for being such a good friend growing up...I wish you and your family all the love in the world, and hope for them that they know you will forever be loved and missed!

Travis Bullock - January 10, 2014 at 09:41 AM

 Maria Doligosa

“ My Condolences goes out to the all the family & friends of Brandon. May you take comfort in knowing that heaven has gained an angel. I will miss his sweet smile and his presence. Brandon's memory will always live forever our my hearts.

Maria Doligosa - January 09, 2014 at 11:04 PM

JK

“ I will never forget the night Brandon, Dave, Dali and I went to the Bjork concert at Red Rocks and got to sit in the front row through a hookup from a friend!! Such an incredible, magical, hilarious night! Brandon kept pretending like one of the band members was signaling him to call him later and whatnot. We were crying we were laughing so hard!! Such a sweet and beautiful soul!!

jamie kent - January 09, 2014 at 10:47 PM

JW

“ Brandon, I will miss his inappropriate, maniacal giggle, his ability to pop up in the most unexpected of places and his genuine affection each and every time we happened upon each other as our lives got busier and we saw each other less and less. I will miss hashing over the insanity we used to get into and the ever looming plans we were always about to make. Love you, man. R.I.P. Long Live Tracks2000, circa 1997.

Jerrold Wilkins - January 09, 2014 at 05:31 PM

TG

“ Shirley, so sorry for the loss of your son BJ. It's been awhile since we had seen you, Larry and BJ. I don't know if you remember the last time you saw us. I'm Great Aunt Tina Gonzales from Walsenburg. I'm married to Ralph's Uncle Joe Gonzales. The last time I saw BJ, Larry and you was when you came to Walsenburg with your Friend Lynette Ruiz. You were at her sister Terry's house and I was there visiting. We live next door to Terry's house. I always remember that day because one of your sons told me hi and I told him I lived next door. He said, "I think I've been to your house before', it sure looks familiar"! I told him that he has been there before because that's where his little Grandma Eduvigen lived. The boys were so young then. Uncle Joe and I send our deepest sympathy to you and your family. I will not be able to attend the services due to work. Uncle Joe will be there. I don't know if he will recognize you since it's been such a long time. God bless you and may he give you comfort at this time.

*Tina and Joseph Gonzales and Family
Walsenburg, Colorado*

Tina Gonzales - January 09, 2014 at 03:26 PM

DP

“ I haven't seen Brandon since high school because I moved out of state shortly after graduation. I remember Brandon very fondly though. He was always very nice and always made me laugh. I don't think there was one person who didn't like him. I'm sure that his personality didn't change since I last saw him. My sincere condolences to his family for the loss of such a good person.

Dan Palmer- Plainfield, Illinois

Dan Palmer - January 09, 2014 at 12:28 PM

JW

“ My sincere condolences to Brandon's family members & friends. It seems that he touched so many people's lives & hearts. I had the pleasure of working with Brandon for years & he was truly a brightly shining star.

Joy Watson - January 09, 2014 at 12:15 PM

LF

“ Lots of love from the Rodriguez girls and Lopez family. purchased the Sunny Memories for the family of Brandon J. Lovato.

Lots of love from the Rodriguez girls and Lopez family. -
January 09, 2014 at 10:18 AM

SH

“ My derest sweet Brandon. I have wrote this page over n over, Not because I didn't know what to say but because my heart won't let me believe that you are gone to Heaven with Grandma Grace and Gandpa Lee. B.J.I miss u so much sweetheart. B.J.that is what I called him. I remember picking you up from Thelma Nelson in the summer when I was just a young girl and you were just in diapers.....lol! . You were the cutest lil boy ever. I loved taking care of you because you were always such a good boy! That golden brown hair and the biggest fluffy cheeks I have ever seen! And as you grew up I was amazed at how fast you could type. I loved watching you. I was so proud of you! Thank you for checking up on me all the time. I miss getting those late night tex's just cuz you felt like talking and sharing stories about all our aches n pains....lol! I will forever rember your BEAUTIFUL , BEAUTIFUL SMILE AND SWEET GENTAL LAUGH!! Thank you for being such a wounderful nephew and loving Auntie the way you did. Our conversations ment the world to me and I thank you with all my heart!! God has taken back one of his most beautiful ANGELES.! Brandon was the best of persons you ever wanted to know ! And if you did you were touched in your heart by him. Until we meet again sweetheart give grandma and grandpa a big kiss and hug for me. Auntie MISS'S YOU N I LOVES YOU!!
Auntie Sheri

sheri hightower - January 08, 2014 at 02:25 PM

JT

“ Jack Putnam and the Houston North Team purchased the Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum for the family of Brandon J. Lovato.

Jack Putnam and the Houston North Team - January 08, 2014 at 07:01 AM

JH

“ *My Cousin,
Great, and fun memories of us growing up as kids. You were always so artistic, extremely intelligent, and so kind. You were always teaching me and showing me about art and different types of music since I was 6 years old in which I have a passion for to this day thanks to you cousin. Godbless you and know that you will ALWAYS be remembered and missed dearly. Until we see each other again one day you take care, be happy and joyous, and never stop smiling because your smile is Beautiful, Contagious, and Shines So Bright! I know you are with our Father God now and all of our loved ones and you are happy and free! I Love You*

J'ainea

jainea hightower - January 07, 2014 at 11:09 PM

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Brandon J. Lovato.

January 07, 2014 at 04:54 PM

LO

“ My Beloved Brother, you will forever be apart of my life. The memories we shared from delivering Aurora Sentinal papers together to playing arcade games on Colfax. To recently all three of us having dinner at Dino's. Bro, you will always be a part of my life and always in my thoughts and prayers. Until we are all together again, LOVE YOU BRO. Lorenzo

Lorenzo - January 07, 2014 at 10:28 AM

SH

“ Brandon, my Son was loving and caring. I will miss him terribly, loved seeing his beautiful smile and easy going personality. Memories of my Brandon will always be close to my heart. He will always be in my thoughts and prayers everyday. I know he is by my side and making sure I am happy and safe. My other Son Lorenzo is also making sure of that too. LOVE YOU MY BRANDON. May you rest in peace and be happy. Mother

Shirley - January 07, 2014 at 10:17 AM

KK

I have known Brandon for the majority of his life. He was one of the most creative person I have ever known. He always had a new idea. He will be missed, but I know he is at peace. God Bless, Ken

Kenneth Knight - January 07, 2014 at 12:08 PM

MK

*I always remember Brandon for his kindness - from taking care of our dogs to helping me get my car to the car place. You will truly be missed.
Martha Knight*

Martha Knight - January 07, 2014 at 10:03 PM