“Carl Cascio is one of my heroes. I got to know him when I was a 10th grader at Central in ROTC. That was in 1956-57. As a senior, he was an NCO in ROTC, and inspected our platoon on a regular basis. Carl acted tough, but even then I could see he had a heart of gold.

I can't forget this 120-pound guy who played as a linebacker on Central's all-state football team.

Carl was so courageous in his life, and yet so kindhearted: the tough guy with love in his heart for the underdog.

He will be sorely missed.

God Bless Carl Cascio in his new journey, and God Bless his loving wife – our classmate, Bernadine Soldano-Cascio.

Semper Fidelis,
