

Carol Lynn Genova

March 21, 1942 - March 21, 1942

Carol Lynn Genova, 83, of Pueblo, was born March 21, 1942, and passed away peacefully at home April 9, 2025. She was preceded in death by her parents, Andrew “Corby” and Violet Capritta; brother, Nicky Capritta; in-laws, Charlie and Theresa Genova; brothers-in-law, Michael Genova and Bob Miketa; and cousin, Bob Gentry. Carol is survived by her loving husband of 61 years, Samuel L. Genova; sisters-in-law, Connie Miketa and Susan Genova Humphrey; she is also survived by her cousins, Dave and Pat Hayson; as well as numerous extended family members and friends. Carol loved attending and participating in craft shows, and she was amazing seamstress. She and her husband Sam worked hard to build their home and a wonderful life together. Her little dogs were the light of her life, and she loved them so much. She also enjoyed gardening and growing flowers. Carol’s favorite thing to do was to decorate her home for every single holiday without fail, she absolutely loved it. She was a dedicated employee for School District 60 and retired as an accountant with 39 years of service. Carol’s husband Sam recalls an old Mustang she had that was beyond repair, but she loved it. When he got rid of the car, she made him nervous for his life! Carol was a ray of light in the lives of those she knew; she will be forever loved and deeply missed by them all. At her request private family services will take place. Online condolences at www.roselawnpueblo.org.

Tribute Wall

IP

“ Carol and her family were our neighbors. I am saddened to hear of her passing.

Irene I. Blea, PhD. - June 05, 2025 at 12:56 AM