

Carolyn Ann Bongirno

June 7, 1938 - November 2, 2022

Carolyn Ann Bongirno, 84, of Pueblo, Colo., passed away in Palm Springs, Calif., on Nov. 2, 2022, surrounded by her family. Carolyn was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence and Sylvia Scarafiotti; her brother, Tom Scarafiotti; father-in-law, Sam Bongirno; and mother-in-law, Ann Bongirno. Carolyn is survived by Carl, her husband of 64 years and their two children, Chris (Tiffany) Bongirno and Cara Bongirno (Bret Griebenow); her grandchildren, Ryan Tseng, Anthony Bongirno and Jordan Bongirno; along with many other dear family and friends. Carolyn was born on June 7, 1938, a day the world became a little brighter. She lived a full life, filled with many blessed years of good health, which she attributed to staying active. In addition to enjoying boating and waterskiing and being an avid tennis player in her earlier years, she found her true passion in the game of golf. She played competitively with several ladies' groups between her two homes in Palm Springs, Calif., and Pueblo, Colo. She won a number of club championships and had the distinction of having made 10 hole-in-ones over her lifetime. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother who loved nothing more than to have a houseful of family sitting around a table of good food sharing stories, laughs and love. She will be fondly remembered and deeply missed. Donations may be made to the Pueblo Soup Kitchen or to the Lucy Curci Cancer Center, 39000 Bob Hope Drive, Rancho Mirage, CA 92270 in honor of Carolyn.

“ Carol was a wonderful friend and neighbor. I am so going to miss our long chats about the dogs and all the things Buddy is doing. I bet he is wondering where you are, but knowing you, you are finding ways to ease the pain to all who love you. Please know that we are thinking of Carl and the rest of the family during this difficult time of loss. She will undoubtedly leave a hole in the hearts of all who have had the privilege to know her.

Our deepest sympathies,
Jenny and Dusti Holm
