

Cecil Raymond Dawson

October 24, 2021

Cecil Raymond Dawson, AKA Ray or Fish, passed away October 26th, 2021 due to complications with COVID. He went into the hospital after being sick for a week and spent all October there until he lost his fight against the illness. He is survived by his wife of 17 years, Trinny; his children Ambrea, Michael, Raymond, and John; and Trinny's daughters Kayla and Alexis; All of these children have given him grandchildren, the 2 living closest were apart of his everyday life, Tristiana and Mavis; 2 sisters Latoya and Darlene. Cecil was a Roll-off Truck Driver for about 30 years. Cecil loved to Bass fish. Cecil could tell some great fishing stories with other great fishermen. He could walk right up next to you and ask, "How's the fish biting?" and you would say, "I haven't caught anything in hours." and he would catch one in less than 5 casts. Then he would chuckle and tell you, "You must not be wiggling your worm right!"

Tribute Wall

KA

“ Kathy lit a candle in memory of Cecil Raymond Dawson

Kathy - January 11, 2022 at 10:13 AM

KA

cecil will be miss by many we all love him he was father of my 3 boys no matter he love his kids and step no matter what anyone thinks I will always love him miss him rest in peace

Kathy - January 11, 2022 at 10:15 AM

DP

“ I miss talking to you your were my brother I love you miss R.I.P Raymond

debbie pratt - January 10, 2022 at 04:36 PM

SS

“ Raymond was good person .

sandrasmith leo smith - January 10, 2022 at 09:37 AM