

Charles S. "Chuck" "Chano" Montoya

February 13, 1940 - June 17, 2023

It is with deep sadness of the sudden passing of Charles S. Montoya "Chuck" or "Chano" 83 on June 17, 2023. Charles was born to the union of Joe I. Montoya and Mary A. Martinez who preceded him in death. Charles was born in Walsenburg, Colorado on February 13, 1940. He is survived by his five children Barbara Montoya (Bobbi Montoya, Jamie & Russ Sanchez, Jolene and & Lee Rendon) Chuck Montoya (Chuck Jr., Frank Montoya, Collin Montoya, Joel Montoya, Latisha Montoya, and Chantel Montoya) Brenda (Craig) Soto (Antonio Soto, Angello Soto, Angelica Soto, Andrea Soto, and Craig John Soto II) Charles Scott Montoya and Shelia (Jon) Bouldin (Kellie Bouldin, and Tonia Bouldin). Also, Charles is survived by his three siblings JoAnn, Delores and Dennis and preceded in death by siblings Silvia, Leroy, and Gloria. Charles is also survived by numerous great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Chuck retired from the army on March 27, 1985, after being medically discharged from the military as sergeant first class. He traveled the world crossing the Pacific and Atlantic Ocean three times. As a way to give back to his army family he donated all his military clothes to the Pueblo veterans air team so they will one day be able to salute him back when he is gone. Chuck loved Texas hold'em, playing the guitar, singing, and dancing with loved ones. In his free time, he enjoyed remodeling his home, researching his genealogy, and completing word puzzles which he learned from his mother as a way to keep his mind sharp. Chuck will be remembered as a generous and lively spirit who will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.
