

Clara J. Torri

May 21, 1919 - December 28, 2015

Clara J. Torri, 96 of Pueblo passed away Dec 28, 2015. Born May 21, 1919 in Rockvale, CO. Clara is survived by her children, Michael (Ann) Torri, Albert John "Skip" (Dona), Jerry Harris; nine grandchildren; and 19 great grandchildren. Preceded in death by her husband of 61 years, Albert P. Torri; parents, Angelina and John Milano; daughter, Sherry Harris; grandchildren, Kimberly Scott, and Levi Torri; and sister, Bertha Birrer. Clara lived with her husband Albert on the family farm her entire life. She was very proud to have driven the school bus for 30 years for Dist 70. She and Albert enjoyed spending time at their cabin in South Fork. Clara attended and won turkey shoots with her father John when she was younger and was very accurate with a broom in her later life. Funeral Service will be 1:00pm, Wed, Jan 6, 2016 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery. The family would like to say a special thanks to Gentiva Hospice and their special CNS's and nurses.

“ There are so many memories I cherish of Clara, but the best were the times I spent in the summers growing up at the farm with Sherry and Clara's fun personality. Watching as she would put on a pair of boots; grab a pitch fork then go out to the corral to clear out the snakes. I can still hear the laughter when she and Al would get together with my folks, Biff and Mary Asti, during visits at our house or at the farm.

Our love and prayers are with you Mickey and Skip and Jerry and the family.

The memories of Aunt Clara are wonderful! Going to the farm for all the holidays and visiting at Gramma Torri's. Clara always trying to get her sister Bertha some way, some how! I remember Clara telling Bertha that the Rocky Mtn. Oysters were chicken. Bertha ate quite a few and really liked them, until Clara told her what they were!! As you guessed Bertha was not happy!! So much laughter! Aunt Clara was a kind, caring loving, hard-working, funny, wise, beautiful soul who dearly loved her family and friends. You know where Sherry got her wonderful personality! Heaven has a beautiful new angel and I bet her and Sherry are having a ball already! My condolences go out to all her family and friends! I will hold the fond memories of both Aunt Clara and Sherry in my heart forever. <3
