

Claude W. "Chuck" Charles

July 23, 1932 - January 18, 2018

Claude "Chuck" W. Charles, born in Ashwaubenon, Wisconsin July 23, 1932 passed away January 18, 2018. Preceded in death by his parents, Claude and Ella; sisters, Helen (Tony) Haysacker, Lucille (Benjiman) Powless, Ethel (George) House, Betty (Walter) Smith, and Bonnie Broekman; brother, Floyd (Ida Mae) Charles; brother in law, Phillip Skenandore. Chuck is survived by his loving wife of 64 years, Norma Charles; children, Emery VanZandt, of Idyllwild, CA, Marilee (Richard) Roldan, of Pueblo, CO; grandchildren, Kyle Jaber, Hudson Oaks, TX, Kari Roldan, Temple, TX, Jeff (Alex) VanZandt, Jason VanZandt, Austin, TX, and Ryan VanZandt, CA; great granddaughter, Sophia VanZandt, Austin, TX; sister, Dorothy Skenandore, DePere, WI; numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. Chuck retired from the CF&I after 44 years as a crane operator. He served in the US Army during the Korean conflict. Chuck loved to take his wife on long vacations in their fifth-wheel trailer, fishing, yard work, watching football, especially the Denver Broncos and Green Bay Packers. Special thanks to Parkview ICU doctors, nurses, hospital staff, and Pueblo Villa for all the wonderful care. Cremation has taken place at Roselawn Crematory. Private family memorial service will be held at a later date. The family may be contacted at the Charles family home. Online condolences can be made at roselwnpueblo.org.