

Cora Maxine Bosiacki

October 1, 1938 - January 26, 2023

Cora Maxine Bosiacki, 84 of Pueblo, was born on October 1, 1938. Went to be with the Lord on January 26, 2023. She is preceded in death by her son, Joseph Robert Howard Jr: parents, John Cruz and Helen Maes; siblings, Ernest Cruz, Rita Olivas, and Rick Maes.

Cora is survived by her daughter Janet (Joe) Naranjo: grandchildren, Sarah, Jackie, Brianna, and Joey: great-grandchildren Joshua R. Thounskane, Leroy-Naranjo Ramos, Izabella Naranjo and Angelica Montoya: siblings John (Sally) Maes, Priscilla Esparza, Theresa Newman and Dean Maes; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, great nieces, and nephews, extended family and friends.

Earlier in life, Cora loved to travel, she loved camping and fishing and spending time in the Colorado Rocky Mountains with friends and family. She loved bowling and played in leagues with her family members.

Cora loved to crochet, she would crochet Afghans and baby blankets and throws for her family. Cora loved pictures! She always had a camera and or a video camera in her hands!

In later years, she traveled the world on her tablet, she kept up with world events, had many friends on Facebook and played words with friends. She had her favorite preachers and enjoyed listening to Christian sermons and Music. Cora was a born teacher, she loved the Lord, and loved to share the Word of God with her grandchildren, siblings, nieces and nephews through late night Bible Studies. Cora was also a night owl.

Cora had a great memory, and would be able to remember names, dates, and places with ease.

Cora worked in many fields, such as being a seamstress, and nanny but the job she spoke most proudly of was as an Electronic Technician for Texas Instruments, working on the wiring for the Apollo Missions

Cora loved people, she loved to talk to people and get to know them. She made people feel loved and cared for. She will be forever loved and deeply missed by all of her family and friends.
