“ Karen and family, My deepest sympathies for everyone at the loss of Casey. I cherish the memories I have of him, seeing him leaning on his shovel as I turned the corner from the highway onto 30th Lane making my way to my home on Everett Rd. I think he must have been in heaven there with his shovel and water in the ditch, looking after the family farm. If memory serves me correctly, he was our "insurance man" when we were little kids and he came to our house. I know that he and my father were acquaintances as they advocated for water on the Mesa. As he rests now in peace, free of pain, rejoice that he has received the gift of eternal life and is with his heavenly loved ones. Job well done everyone. Pam Andrew Keller
