

Denis Paul Pelletier

September 3, 2023

Denis P. Pelletier peacefully completed his earthly journey on September 4, 2023 at his residence in Boone, Colorado. Denis was born in Ft. Belvoir, Virginia, on July 23, 1948, to Chanel J. Pelletier and Hazel (Pelletier) Clarke of Casco, Maine. He taught himself how to play drums and performed with his mother and her band at various locations in southern Maine in the 1960's before going to Vietnam. After surviving a near-fatal wound while serving in the U.S. Army, he returned to his hometown of Portland, Maine. He worked various jobs including cab driver for Yellow Taxi as well as at the Foundry Portland Company. Although he moved on to live in Texas for a while, in early 2000, he moved to Colorado and finally found a place to discover peace in his heart. Music and playing drums remained his first love throughout his life. Along with his parents and cherished grand-parents, J. Paul Martin and Katherine Martin, Denis is preceded by his siblings: Jacquelyn W. Himes, Fredrick A. Pelletier, and most recently, Paul R. Pelletier, Sr. In addition to his beloved dogs-Fat Tony and Utica, Denis is survived by his daughter, Jocelyn and husband Carl Outlaw of Goldsboro, NC. Daughter, Krystle Coughlin of Ft. Kent, Maine. Brother Reggie and Linda Pelletier of Tampa, Florida, cousin Marilyn Mills Gaudet of Bucksport, Maine, Nine grandchildren, Three great-grandchildren, Many loved nieces, nephews, and special friend, Kaylynn Drake of Boone, CO. The family would like to thank Roselawn Cemetery & Funeral Home of Pueblo, Colorado, in combination with Chad E. Poitras Cremation & Funeral Service of Buxton, Maine, for their care and patient assistance.

A private service will be held by Kaylynn Drake and their friends.
