“ I'm so sad that I can't be there with my family to celebrate the life of a very special aunt. Dorothy had the most contagious laugh and love for her children and grandchildren, and I always loved listening to the stories of her life with her brothers, Johnny and George. Now she can laugh with them in heaven and eternity. She will be missed dearly, but never forgotten. A life well-lived! Lorrie (Bensik) Russell

“ Mom, Thank you for being my best friend. Thank you for being the best Mom in the whole world. Thank you for making my childhood so wonderful. You were always there for me, ready to help, to protect or defend. You always put Brian and I first. We never wanted for anything. I will miss you until we meet in heaven. I will love you for eternity. Your daughter, Diana
