“ Here is what my daughter Diane wrote to me when she learned of Aunt Dorothy's death. I think it is beautiful and if you agree, please share it with the rest of your family.

Love you all.

Larry

I'm not sure I ever met her, but your mom spoke of her with pride and love. It sounds like she was a wonderful choice for a godmother. You can't help but feel sad at losing the last of Dewald children. But so many of those family members had long and rich lives; children and grandchildren to continue the family. And then can't help but smile about the many blessing they had throughout their lives and how the rest of us were blessed by there presence in our lives.

Even if your are sad , hopefully the thought the whole family is there to welcome her into heaven will bring some lightness to your heart. Love you Daddy! Di

“ To the Schoch children:

My condolences to all of you on the passing of Dorothy. Even though our mothers lived long lives, it was still hard to lose them.

Ben and Dorothy were always my favorite uncle and aunt, mainly because I loved the wonderful children they raised. Thanks for adding so much spice to my otherwise boring farm life. As a child I remember being so excited that I couldn't sleep whenever I heard, "Ben's are coming! Ben's are coming!" All of my favorite childhood memories involve the Schoch kids. That one summer when Ben was in Rochester with stomach problems, you spent quite a few days at our house. Every day was an exciting, fun adventure for me. Also, Ben was Dad's favorite hunting partner. They would go out at dawn and bring home limit after limit of ducks and geese. Dorothy and Mom would be stuck in our basement, cleaning all the birds, and we kids were free to roam the farm, doing all the ridiculous things Judy could think up. Also, we were partners in terrorizing Grandma Schoch, poor lady. No wonder she always called us "Dummers." Remember the time we went to downtown Hosmer and every store was closed. When we asked one of the Hosmer kids, "Isn't anything open?", he replied, "Your moud (mouth) was chust open." That was certainly a classic.

I loved Ben because of his viciously snide Lacher sense of humor whenever he sarcastically analyzed someone he didn't like. And Dorothy would always get that certain look on her face whenever one of her children did or said something particularly outrageous (and that happened quite often). She would try to feign a stern look of reprimand, but her eyes would twinkle, and one could tell that she thought her children were so cute and funny. And I thought so too.

In later years, I particularly enjoyed Judy's trips to visit Joanne in Bowdle, and that time we went to the Black Hills to meet you at your Igloo reunion. I'm so grateful that I got to see you and Dorothy several years ago. Thanks to Dennis and Ginny for coming to Pueblo.

Dorothy was the end of an era for all of us. All of that generation are now gone, and it's our turn for "Depends" and canes and wheel chairs. May all of you enjoy your senior years, and I'll try to enjoy mine.
