Edward Elliss was born in Landisville, NJ on August 18, 1977 and gained his wings on December 25, 2023 in Pueblo, CO. He is survived by his wife of 20 years, Francis Montoya, son, Isaac Elliss; daughters, Emmalee Elliss and Caylee Elliss. Ed loved fishing, hiking and enjoying nature. He loved being with family, especially with his kids. For the past 6 years Edward has worked right alongside Chris Wiley doing numerous projects to include painting, building decks and fences, pretty much being your everyday handyman. Ed was an all around fun loving person who loved to joke around. He also loved to be surrounded by any and all of his family and friends. Ed was a die hard Philadelphia Eagles fan. FLY EAGLES FLY!

The family would love to give special thanks to Roselawn Funeral Home & Cemetery, Officiant Allen Lee and numerous family and friends who have shown so much compassion during this unexpected and difficult time. Donations to the family can be made through their GoFundMe at <https://gofundme.com/e8cca63c>
