“ Omg, Mrs. Tamburelli was my music teacher when I was in the 5th grade in 1971 at Washington Elementary School. I recently shared a memory of Mrs. Tamburelli with my daughter in law that I asked Mrs. Tamburelli if she would allow me to bring lyrics for the songs Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head and Color My World and if she would buy the sheet music. Mrs. Tamburelli agreed and our 5th grade class learned those songs. I remember her eyeglasses having rhinestones on them and me liking them. Great memories and may Mrs. Tamburelli rest in peace and may fun and nice memories of her live on!! Doris (Navarro) Cooper

“ Mrs. Tamburelli was an awesome teacher and friend. Her smile was infectious. She always had a kind word for each of us. I taught with Betty for several years. The children that she taught had the benefit of a great lady.
Blessings Betty.
