

Emily Wiley

April 12, 1923 - January 25, 2018

Emily Wiley, born April 12, 1923 in Pueblo passed away January 25, 2018 in Pueblo, CO. Born to Eufemio and Isabella Sanchez and was one of eleven siblings. Survived by her husband, Vergil Wiley, of Pueblo; son, Les (Kathy) Mendicello, of Longview, TX, brother, Arthur Sanchez, of Denver; granddaughters, Lisa(Andy) VanBurkleo, of Longview, TX, and Julie (Jason) Randolph, of Katy, TX; great grandchildren, Lauren, Alec, Allison, Jeffrey and Ben; brother in law, John (Pat) Wiley; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Preceded in death by her husband, Frank Mendicello; and grandsons, Michael and Jeff Mendicello. Emily lived her life for her family and her family was her greatest joy. She also enjoyed travels with her husband Vergil, gardening, and feeding the neighborhood birds. The family is grateful to First Light Caregiver, Ashley Harner, The Sangre de Cristo Hospice staff, care giver, Mary Roldan, and Eucharistic Minister, Pam Torres. A Funeral Mass will be held, 10:00 am, Monday, January 29, 2018 at St. Mary's Catholic Church, 217 E. Mesa. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family request donations be made to Sangre de Cristo Hospice, 1207 Pueblo Blvd Way, Pueblo, CO, 81005.

Cemetery Details

Rosealwn Cemetery

1706 Roselawn Rd
Pueblo, CO 81006

Tribute Wall

GB

“Virgil, Les, and family - please accept our sincere condolences for your loss. Mrs. Wiley was always beautiful, always gracious. The love she left behind for each of you lasts forever. The Family of Larry Burt

Glenda Burt - January 26, 2018 at 05:06 PM