

Emily L. Wythe

November 22, 1955 - January 5, 2022

Emily Lorraine Wythe, 66

Emily L. Wythe, passed away at 319 on the afternoon of January 5th of 2022 after a long battle with covid. Emily will be joined in heaven by her husband David K. Wythe. She will also be met in heaven by her daughter Anita M. Bernal, her mother Viola Lobato, her father Thomas Valdez and brother Louie Bernal.

Emily's going to be survived by her two precious children Elizabeth (Michael) Rodriguez, Joe (Mindy) Bernal.

Bommer loved laughing with her many grandchildren Denessa Bernal, Chris Owens, Josh Rodriguez, Joe Bernal III, Cameron Begay, Natalia Bechtol, Kimberly Rodriguez, Angel Bernal and Leah Bernal.

And the joys just kept coming when she was given great-grandchildren. Christiana Owens, Serenity Mena, Trinity Mena, Chris Owens III, Khalil Owens.

Emily will be missed by her grieving brothers and sisters Odelia (Nick)Ortega, Louisa Fuentes, Marc Bernal, Mark Valdez, and Debbie Jamison.

Emily loved being with all of her many cousins, nieces and nephews. Time with her family was always such a highlight of her life. She enjoyed fishing, bingo, and cripple Creek and of course taking everyone out to eat. She was always just happy to spend time with the ones she loved even if it was curled up on the couch watching a spooky movie.

Emily will be so dearly missed by each of us this is truly a sad time. Find strength in each other and share her memories so that she may live on in all of us.

A Funeral Service will be held 12:00noon, Friday, February 4, 2022 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery.
