

Emma Jayne Sandoval

July 2, 1951 - April 13, 2025

Emma Jayne Sandoval, 73 of Pueblo, CO, passed away unexpectedly on April 13, 2025. She was born in Pueblo Colorado on July 2, 1951. Living her formative years on the South Side of Pueblo, when her father was transferred to the San Francisco Bay Area, Oakland California became her second beloved home. Emma Jayne shared her professional talents with both the UC Berkeley Anthropology Department and the Port of Oakland. Family obligations led her back to her hometown of Pueblo Colorado where she retired from the Pueblo County Department of Social Services. Emma Jayne will be remembered by her infectious life, her love of family and her signature Asymmetrical hairstyle. Emma Jayne is preceded in death by her parents, Daniel and Viola Sandoval and her eldest sister, Diane Sanchez. Emma Jayne is survived by her daughter, Heather (James) Richardson; grandchildren, Daniel Sandoval, Breyanna Holmes, Tatiana Andrews and Kyleigh Richardson; sister, Barbara (Alfredo) Terrazas; nieces, Alicia (Jamie) Mills and Sacha Sanchez and nephew, Rick (Carol) Sanchez. In accordance with Emma Jayne's last wishes, there will be no funeral or memorial service. She will instead be interred in a private ceremony with her immediate family. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to Sangre de Cristo Hospice, in memory of her parents and sister.

Tribute Wall

AP

“ This was our first holiday together as a blended family—and we had a blast. Grateful for the memories we made. Continuing to pray for her daughter Heather and the family she left behind to cherish her memory. ”

april - April 22, 2025 at 12:24 AM