“ I just now found out that Emma passed away in July. Victor, I send you my condolences. She was an inspiration, always upbeat and spunky well into her nineties. My husband David (who passed away in October of 2022) and I enjoyed knowing her while working on her house after it was damaged in the flood. I lost touch after she broke her leg and tried to contact her, and stopped by the house several times, without any luck. Anyway, wishing you the best. I'll always have fond memories of your mother.
