

Erland L. Vick

December 19, 1943 - April 7, 2020

Erland L. "Corky" or "Budda" Vick, 76 died April 3, 2020 at his home in Pueblo, CO. Born in Pueblo to the union of Erland C. Vick and Sophia Vick (nee Kochevar) who predeceased him in death. He served in the United States Navy and after honorable discharge, he was employed and retired from Colorado Fuel & Iron Corporation. Corky is survived by his cousins, Robert (Angela) Parr, and Shirley Parr. Corky was a gifted golfer who loved riding his T-bucket collector car and was always the first to raise a glass of beer with his many buddies. At his request, cremation had taken place with no public services. The family respectfully request no food or flowers and to make donations to the charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

OB

“ He was a good friend and we spent a lot of time together. He will be sadly missed by many of his family and friends. Ori

ORION R. BIRCH - April 10, 2020 at 01:44 PM