

Floyd L. Cody

July 6, 1937 - August 30, 2022

Floyd L. Cody, 85, passed in Pueblo, CO on August 30, 2022, affectionately known as "Papa". He was born on July 6, 1937, in Thayer, Missouri. Floyd was preceded in death by his mother and father Mable and Hubert Cody and 2 brothers and 6 sisters. Survived by his beloved wife of 68 years, Marjorie Cody; children, Sharon Cody, Steve Cody, Wade Cody, Mike Cody; 7 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. Most notably, Floyd worked as an auto mechanic for Toyota before switching careers and becoming a Maintenance Engineer for the Southland Corporation, retiring after almost twenty years. Adventurous in nature, Floyd would frequently travel with his bride exploring new towns and camping at various lakes and mountain locations. He enjoyed several hobbies including; hunting, fishing, photography, and RC airplanes. His love for hunting honed his marksmanship skills, enabling him to be one of the most competitive marksmen in Pueblo, winning many shooting competitions at the local sportsman's club. Floyd's enthusiasm of photography went beyond him being behind the lens. Absent any formal training, he taught himself how to develop pictures and create "trick" photography in his homemade darkroom. Building and flying remote controlled airplanes were favorite pastimes and hobbies. In addition, flying his own planes, Floyd learned the aerodynamics of flight and designed his own planes. Always athletic, even in his golden years, Floyd enjoyed going on frequent bike rides. A loving heart and infectious smile, he brought joy to any company he was around. He will always be in our hearts and greatly missed.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m., Tuesday, September 6, 2022 at Roselawn Funeral Home Chapel.

“ One of the memories I cherish the most is taking Uncle Floyd up in an airplane and letting him fly. I'll never forget the smile on his face.
