

Floyd Henry "Buddy" Comfort

July 22, 1954 - February 24, 2025

Floyd Henry Comfort, affectionally known as "Buddy" went to join his mom and dad, Betty and Bud Comfort, on February 24, 2025. Buddy is preceded in death by his parents, Betty Comfort, Floyd "Bud" Comfort; grandparents, Henry & Rose Williams; grandmother, Ruth Diebler; aunt, Ruth Williams; uncle, Norman Williams; and cousin, Leanne Williams. Buddy was born in Pueblo, Colorado, grew up on St. Charles Mesa, and loved animals, especially his horses, and working on his cars. He graduated from Pueblo County High School, and PCC with an associates degree in automotive technology. Buddy worked at Rainbow Bakery in the shipping and receiving department for many years, until the bakery closed. He is survived by his siblings, Jeffry Comfort (Sylvie), Matthew Comfort, and Lorrie Hoffman (David Pool); numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends. Buddy was a devoted family member and friend, and lived life to it's fullest, in spite of his limitations. He will be dearly missed. Special thank you to Greenwood Maner staff for helping Buddy for many years, and to Prestige Care Center of Pueblo, for taking care of Buddy in his final days. Buddy has requested cremation with a private ceremony for his siblings.
