

Floyd Stephen "Skip" Robino

Floyd Stephen Robino, affectionately known as Skip or Skippy, was born to the union of Joseph and Ruth Robino on February 28, 1952, in Walsenburg, CO. Skip passed away peacefully on August 10, 2025, in Colorado Springs surrounded by family. He was the youngest of four siblings, who all grew up in LaVeta, CO. Skip graduated high school in LaVeta, Class of 1970. He joined the US Navy and settled in Pueblo after his service. He worked and retired from the Pueblo West Metro District, Supervisor of Roads where he worked for over 30 years. He is preceded in death by parents; sister, Mary Louise; brothers, Albert (Donna) and Paul "Pokey" (Patti) Robino; great-nephew Blake Kouri; niece, Robyn Melissa Krupp; in-laws, Darrell Sr. and Dorothy Aumiller; brother-in-law, Darrell Eugene Aumiller, Jr.; dear friend, Slats; his beloved best buddy Titus (grand dog). Skip had so many dear friends and adopted children who he loved as if they were his own. Later in life Skip welcomed three cats into his home, and they brought him great companionship, Mama Cat, Monkey and Coon. Skip loved to hunt, make knives, and cook for people. He was the light of the party and was a phenomenal cook. He opened his home to so many people and would give you the shirt off his back. He and Stephen traveled together to Mexico, South Africa, and he enjoyed time in Panama with Trina, Stephen, Maddy and Ronan. He and his brother Albert enjoyed trips to Arizona and his nephew Mike and brother Albert also traveled to South Africa. Skip loved to travel and made friends wherever he went. He was the biggest fan of Days of Our Lives and Family Guy. He enjoyed reading cookbooks, loved shopping and found himself buying items off late night tv. He always bought gifts for people and many times it was just because. Skip worked hard and played hard and found peace spending time in the mountains and in LaVeta. He hosted holidays and birthdays; his home was a central gathering for these events, which never needed a knock on the door. He made amazing ribs, brisket, ham, turkey, and any kind of smoked meat. If you left his home hungry, it was your fault. It is impossible to sum up Skip's life in an obituary because he led an extraordinary life with lots of love. He accomplished so much and left a legacy which will be treasured for years to come. He will be missed more than words could ever describe; the dinner table will never be the same. “Grandpa Skip was more than a grandfather to me—he was a teacher of life. He showed me strength, independence, and how to face the world with compassion, even when times were hard. He may not have always used gentle words, but his lessons were always rooted in love. He was a man of many skills—from butchering an animal to making even the hardest times seem softer. Though my name isn’t listed under grandchildren in his obituary. I feel it’s important to share a bit of truth about the kind of grandfather he truly was.

He was tough and stern at times, but behind that was a heart that taught me lessons I’ll carry forever: to meet the unknown with care and compassion, to truly listen before making judgments, and to understand that family runs deeper than blood alone.

I never had an issue with my Grandpa Skip only love and respect. I still keep one of his knives that he made for my graduation, treating it as if it carries his spirit: cared for, respected, and kept sharp, just like he always was in my mind.

One thing I know for certain is that he loved his grandchildren. Even if he couldn’t always be present, he made sure we knew his love. You couldn’t ask for a better grandpa, and I will forever be grateful for the time, lessons, and love he gave me.

“ Jerry and I certainly enjoyed your company! Full of hunting stories and jokes and laughs. Skip was always smiling or winking. His family was everything to him. Thanks for creating great memories.

“ One day I picked up Skip at the cabin and went for a ride up the canyon. As soon as we started up, a bear came out of the brush walking along the road. Every so often that bear would stop and turn and look at us. That continued for at least a half mile. We really enjoyed the experience

“ Skip had a goat named goat. Goat was just like a dog. He would run around the Corral property and chase the dogs. He would lay with the dogs, but when Titus would chase him , the goat would literally jump in the back of the SUV to hide. Skip and I would laugh uncontrollably
