The oldest of 7 children, he grew up on a farm, working so hard all his life and never stopped. He could fix just about anything. Always in his shop, garage or job sites. Also caring for his yard and home that he was so proud of, building things, planting flowers, to maintain its appearance. Frank loved happy hours on his patio, everyone was invited as he truly enjoyed people and visiting with family and friends. He was a good cook and an even better storyteller. He had a great sense of humor. He loved travelling, especially to Las Vegas or spending months in Hawaii or Arizona with Helen, visiting family and friends in North and South Dakota, always ready for the next adventure. He was a religious man, tall in stature, with a very big heart. His true loves in life were Family, Friends, and Faith. That is why this honest, kind, and remarkable man will be sadly missed by all that knew him, leaving us only memories to cherish forever.
