

Grace Ann Carruth

August 17, 1936 - October 4, 2021

Grace Ann Carruth, long time resident of Pueblo, CO, passed away peacefully at her home on October 4, 2021. Ann was 85 at the time of her death. Ann is survived by her children, Becky Nelsen, Bonnie Dove, Bob Carruth, and Katie Carruth; seven grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Betty Lancaster. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Odie Carruth; and her brother, Bruce Chandler. Ann was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She always put her family first; she loved fiercely and whole heartedly. She was an astute, well-respected business woman who was an advisor and mentor to many. Ann loved to garden and had an amazing green thumb. She enjoyed traveling and especially loved cruises. Her best memories included traveling with family and friends. She will be dearly missed. Special thanks to her wonderful caregivers, Abode Hospice, and Dr. Deane and his staff at UC Health. In lieu of food and flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Ann's memory to Posada of Pueblo, coloradogives.org and/or University of Colorado Rheumatology Division, <https://giving.cu.edu/fund/rheumatoid-arthritis-research-fund>. Private Internment is at Roselawn Cemetery. Condolences may be expressed to the family on Monday, October 11, 2021 between 2-4p at the Pueblo Country Club.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I knew Ann from when I worked at Wendy's on Elizabeth in the 80's. She was such a great lady! I was always happy to see her when she came for lunch. She really made an impression as you can tell because it's 30 years later and I still thought of her often. I just loved her!
