

Gregory Alan Copeland

August 17, 1954 - May 20, 2018

Gregory A. Copeland, 63, of Pueblo passed away May 20, 2018. Preceded in death by his parents, Betty and Delber Copeland. Survived by his wife, Annette Copeland; son, Eric (Maria Rainsdon) Copeland; sister, Shawn (John) Adams; and many very special friends and family. Greg loved life and was truly a happy person. His best days involved fishing, skiing, hunting, and riding his Harley. Eric and Megan Furrer will cherish the hunting trips. The Mercers will always remember uncle Greg teaching and giving pointers on ski trips. We will all remember the fishing trips to Taylor. He's leaving behind so many special, special people. His wife, Annette, son, Eric and Maria, Brother and sister-in-law, Kent and Jeannette Mercer, who introduced him to Annette; many nieces, and nephews; lifelong friends: Rick Salvo, Leonard DiGrado, and Dennis Zimmerman, Dave Walsh, Patti Carleo, Wendy and Lydell Snyder, Bruce and Shevawn Bensik, Mary Copeland; his huge family at Monarch Mountain and finally his "girls": special Krista, Janice, Boomer, Tess, Melba, Susan, and Carol and Jeremy. He was such a huge part of everyone's lives and will truly be missed. May we all strive to be as happy as "The Greg". In lieu of flowers please make donations to the Monarch Community outreach in "The Greg's" name. A Celebration of Life will be held 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm, Sat June 2, 2018, at the Pueblo Convention Center. Thank you all for your kind words over the last few days. The Greg loved everyone and if he touched your life in any way, we'd love to see you at the memorial.
