Heather A. "Bear" Geahlen. A loving daughter, mother, granddaughter, sister, and friend. Preceded in death her, daddy Terry; grandma Lila; grandpa, Richard; uncle, Dicky and aunt, Laura; stepdad, Hav and friends. Survived by mamma, Becky; daughter, Katelyn; brother, Chris; family and friends, puppies, Sally and Mogwyn. Heather is a fashionista she always looked beautiful the most beautiful woman in our world. MORE!! Each time we embrace a memory we meet again with those we love. For the heart never forgets.

"I'm still here"

I may be gone...but please don't cry Death is not the last goodbye There will come a day we will meet again Don't be blue...Don't be sad...Think back to the fun we had... I'm always here...I hear you speak...In times of trouble it's me you seek. You don't see me but I see you. I will do my best to pull you through speak to me I will hear. Never fear....Do not cry...See you again. It's not goodbye...

Heather, I may have only meet you a couple times, but you were one tough cookie. Your strength was shining so bright for Roger. You lit up when u seen him and everything around you vanished like u and him were the only ones there. :) You were very strong for him Heather. My husband is with him right now and I know he misses you so so much. The love that you gave him he uses to teach others to love their wives and not take anything for granted. The love u gave him is a gift Heather and that strength is passed on to him as well. You will be missed but never forgotten. I pray that you are at peace. You're in our thoughts and prayers girl! Xoxo

“ I am so very sorry for your loss, my heart, thoughts, and prayers go out to your family at this time. I'm so sorry I cannot be there for the celebration of her short life. Becky, please know that I'm sending you love & strength!

Heather always had a smile on her face! She was a princess from the beginning and everyone, EVERYONE, she came in contact with! HAD TO LOVE HER, she is and will be missed.

"The Road Not Taken

*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference."
— Robert Frost*

Heather you were someone special to every single person you came across. The way you were able to make a room seem like theres no dark covering it your life represented a light to many. And in your passing it has seemed like your light has faded away. The Thought of you being gone has not yet set in to me but will be a motivation in my life to do better for myself. I'm sorry for all the days when I was young and naïve but you were patient and you new that I would learn. It seems like once I learned how to be a man then you were gone and then I thought I had no hope. You mean that much to me heather! You live with me and watching over me for my whole life you are one of the biggest motivations in my life. I remember when I first started dating Katelynn you thought you highly of me and you wanted only the best for your daughter. You and your family mean more to me than most people think but its whats in my heart and you are there heather. The days when you would call me son would make me feel a joy that only a mother can give someone. She is amazing, kind hearted, so beautiful, lived a life of tribulations and trials that i have been blessed to be a part of thank you so much for helping me see that no matter what just be myself and fight for the things i love. i love you heather and i will see you again in heaven where all the angels go. I love you

“ She was an awesome person. She would always have such encouraging words for me and everyone that needed someone to talk to. She would be there for anyone and everyone no matter what. She was like a mom to me. We had a falling out not to long ago and it has never been the same since. It really breaks my heart that I really haven't got to talk to her or make a mends or anything. I hope she knows I will always love her like a mom no matter what. Until I see u again mom, Heather.....I love you and I will miss you.

“ I remember when Heather, Katelynn, and I were on the scooter going down Lakeview. It was hilarious. People were looking at us like we were crazy. We were and still are crazy.

“ We are so very sorry to hear about Heather. Such a shame a young woman to lose her life and not long after Terry passed. Too soon for your family to try and cope with another death. Our hearts go out to everyone especially, Joyce and Becky and Heathers little girl. Thoughts and prayers to the whole family. Steve Smith and Karen Greenwood Smith.
