“ I knew Pudgy when I lived in Pueblo briefly for 2 years, knew his cousin Gilbert "Blue" Alcon who also passed on a few years before, and knew his good friend Harvey Montoya who perished in 2012 along with April Hon and their 2 children in a house fire. So they're all together now in heaven. Pudgy was the connecting piece who brought people together as friends/family. He was loyal to a fault. I made him mad one time over a misunderstanding and forever hoped he forgave me. Great guy Descanse En Paz

“ Pudge was a great grandfather that spoiled his grandchildren with toys and candy. He loved them with his whole heart! He will be remembered for his great sense of humor and easy going personality. Sincere condolences to his family, his grandchildren, his son, his daughters, and loved ones. RIP Pudge. . Much Love, Gloria Rael
