

Jack Biondolillo

November 12, 1918 - September 4, 2017

Jack Biondolillo, 98, passed away peacefully on Sept. 4, 2017. Preceded in death by his wife, Rose E. Biondolillo; and eight brothers and sisters. He was a devoted husband and father; daughters, Jacqueline (John, deceased) Zaletel of Bakersfield, Calif., and M.E. (Joseph) Friedman of Boulder, Colo.; grandchildren, John (Beverly) Zaletel and Paul (Ioana) Zaletel, both of Bakersfield, Calif., Regina (Alan) Lee of Burbank, Calif., and Nicole (Sean) Campbell of Santa Cruz, Calif.; great-grandchildren, Monica, Madison, Megan, Sofia, Alexandra, Dominick, Justine and Owen. Jack loved music; he played saxophone and clarinet since age 13. He formed a band named the Serenaders, which played at various venues throughout the years in Pueblo. Jack loved gardening and was a certified Master Gardener. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to others. Memorial Mass at 10 a.m. on Sept. 18, at St. Mary Church. The family respectfully requests the omission of flowers and food.