“ I had the pleasure of knowing Jacki for many years. She was always delightful. With a twinkle in her eyes and a very warm smile, she was always a welcome friend and advocate for me. Thank you, dear Jacki for the joy and peace you brought to me.

“ Jacki and I shared 2 grandsons, Evan and Wyatt. She always said I was the outdoor roadtrip grandma and she was the creative arts grandma. Jacki shared her love of jewelry making with me as well as other arts and crafts. We became close friends over the last couple of years and I will really miss her.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. About 16 months ago I called Jackie (or as I knew her--Aunt Louise). It was an honor to talk with her and share our faith in Jesus. Her heart was smiling as we spoke, and I was blessed and encouraged by her words.

*God's strength and hope be with you all. In Christ's love--
