

Jacqueline Root Thomas Roblek

December 27, 1918 - June 15, 2013

Jacqueline Root Thomas Roblek went to be with the Lord on Saturday, June 15, 2013, in Atlanta, GA. She died of natural causes. Jacqueline was born December 27, 1918, in Trinidad, Colorado. Her parents were Louise Simmons Root and Robert L. Root both of Pueblo. A longtime Pueblo resident, Jacqueline graduated from Central High School in 1937. She was a member of Tri-C Sorority and participated in many school activities. After graduation she was a ballet and tap dance instructor at the "Y" located near the Colorado Fuel & Iron Corp. She met and married W. Jack Thomas in July 1939, who was a cost accountant for the CF&I. Jacqueline loved to play bridge and was a Master Duplicate Bridge Player. She and Jack lived on Claremont Ave. in Pueblo, for all forty-five years of their married life. They enjoyed membership in the Minnequa Club and the Pueblo Tennis Club. At her fiftieth Central High School class reunion, after Jack's death, Jacqueline met, and later married, her second husband, Robert F. Roblek. They lived on Argyle Ave. in Pueblo, and were married for twenty-two years. Upon Robert's death, Jacqueline moved to Atlanta, GA to live in Belmont Village Assisted Living-Buckhead, to be near her only child, daughter Jill Louise Thomas Marshall. Jacqueline is survived by her daughter Jill and her son-in-law John C. Marshall, and by her two grandsons, Jeffrey W. Marshall (Elizabeth) of San Francisco, CA and John Thomas Marshall (Ling) of Atlanta, GA. Also surviving, are two great-grandsons, David and Logan Marshall, and nephew, Bill Monck (Cindy) of Rye, CO, and niece Pamela Monck Hill (Jay) of Philadelphia, PA. Jacqueline was a most beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and aunt. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends. Funeral services will be at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, June 19, 2013 at Roselawn Chapel, 1706 Roselawn Road, Pueblo, CO, 81006. Interment to follow at Roselawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to Senior Resources Development Agency (SRDA), Meals-On-Wheels, 230 N. Union Ave., Pueblo, CO 81003.
