

James David "Jim" Carrillo

December 31, 1960 - April 28, 2021

James "Jim" David Carrillo, 60, of Pueblo, passed away April 28, 2021, surrounded by his family. Jim was the longest living dialysis patient in Pueblo County, 26 years, and fought a valiant battle but is now free of all pain. Jim was a cabinet maker by trade, worth his weight in gold, and would give you his shirt off his back. He loved his morning coffee, camping, fishing, collecting, trading with his buddies, but most of all spending time with his family. Survived by Sandy; twin daughters, Dr. Erika (Mike) James of Denver, Dr. Erin (Ed) Stresow of Iowa; son, Ryan Carrillo of Pueblo; favorite grandchild, Amilia (Jordan) Sloan; siblings, Georgia (Joe) Montoya, Dolores (Manuel) Espinoza, Bea Lovato, Esther Larranaga, Eleanor (Pete) Trujillo; Carlos, Ernie, Isaac, Carla Carrillo; Laura, Linda, Maxine, Gilbert Vasquez; Claudine (Aaron) Hamlin; and many beloved nieces and nephews who many of them considered him their favorite uncle; mother-in-law, Crestella Torrez; in-laws, Gloria Gonzales, Lorenzo, Tony, Debbie, Joe Torrez; close friends, Chuck Santangelo, Dave Ramos, Mark Hernandez, Paul Kendall. Predeceased by mother, Amelia; father, Charlie; stepmother, Vita; father in-law, Lorenzo Torrez; brother, Bob; brothers in-law, Sydney Larranaga, Gabe Lovato, Larry Torrez, Rick Torres, Roger Gonzales. Many thanks to all Pueblo Dialysis Centers' staff, patients, and their families; Parkview Neuro 2nd floor

ICU; numerous doctors and nurses; those who stayed in constant contact with Jim during our family's journey; baseball, basketball, tennis, band, volleyball family friends; Pueblo West McDonald's for his daily large black coffee with 10 sugars and 3 creams on the side. Per Jim's request, no formal services, cremation has taken place, and immediate family will gather privately at a later date.
