

Jeanette Radakovich Jaycox

April 16, 1950 - October 21, 2023

Jeanette "JJ" Radakovich Jaycox, born from the union of Daniel and Jennie Mandarich Radakovich on April 16, 1950, in Pueblo, Colorado, passed away on October 21, 2023, at the age of 73. Survived by her only daughter, Kimberly (Charlie) Wolf and one grandson, CJ, who was her "greatest blessing, love and light". She is also survived by lifelong friends Sallie (John) Donley, Noreen Riffe, Kathy (Lee) Schermerhorn, Jolene (Lew) Romett and Margaret (Mike) Baker and numerous other friends and relatives from the Mandarich & Radakovich families. She was preceded in death by her husband of 47 years, Larry Jaycox, her parents, her in-laws Warren and Myrna Knight-Jaycox, her aunts; Mary Mandarich Masciotra and Amelia "Dee" Mandarich Robinson; her uncles; Vaso, Nick and Michael Mandarich. Jeanette was a proud Pueblo native who graduated from Central High School in 1968 and again in 1972 with a degree in English and Russian Language from UCCS. She had a passion for ice skating, horses, and bowling at Bowlero, which is where she and her beloved cousin Elsie, first met Larry, in 1973. There was nothing she loved more than being "CJ's Baba". Jeanette was of the Eastern Orthodox faith and member of St. Michael's Orthodox Church since 1950. The family extends their heartfelt gratitude to the Parkview Flight for Life Air Medical Transport and the entire medical staff at the University of Colorado Hospital Anschutz Campus for the prompt and wonderful care they provided. There will be a Celebration of Life on Friday, November 17th from 5 pm - 9 pm at Gus' Tavern.

“ I live in Kansas City and when I saw the notice in the Chieftain, I immediately in my mind could see her, but from 1965-68 when we both were at Central. Our minds store the images and voices of people who were in our past and it only takes a trigger to bring those images and sounds of their voices to the surface. Even if we have not seen someone since 1968
