“ I am at a loss for words.... I knew Jeff many years ago and met him when I needed someone to teach me it was okay to be different. He made a lasting impression on me that forever changed my life.

“ I'm at a loss for words. I had no idea you had passed away until this evening - I was sitting here thinking about old dear friends and you popped into my head ~ so I jumped on fb to check in and saw the news. My heart was crushed!!! You were always so nice to me and had the kindest heart and sweetest soul. Heaven definitely gained a beautiful angel. I'm only sorry I just found out. Fly high with the angels my sweet friend!

“ Dear Melissa and family,
So sorry to hear of Jeff's passing. I used to skate with the Mazur family growing up. Have a lot of great memories. He will be greatly missed. Heartfelt sorrow.
God Bless!

“ I met Jeff in high school through Lisa. We would go see him play hocky and hang out. Watching them shy around having some kind of "thing". Lisa had to move away and we kept in touch a bit but it just wasn't the same without our good friend there. My heart aches for the tragedy of the lost time between you. I was so excited to see that you two had found each other again. I was so happy to see you together and happy. I'm so sorry for your loss. I'm grateful to have been a small part in your life Jeff. Thank you!

“ Jeffry. You were one of my best friends for so many years. The talks we had and the friendship we shared can never be replaced. You will always live on in our hearts and through your closest friends. Ride it like you stole it and keep the rubber down. Until we meet again. Keep watch up there. We got it down here love.
