“ Jerry and I (along with our families) were neighbors the decade of the 90s. More so close friends. Kind, caring, humorous, dependable, honest, thoughtful, motivated, self improving, hard working, all fall short describing him. His effervescence was a gift from God, he knew it but didn't advertise it. We all relocated, kids grew up, life is busy. Eventually lost touch, I regret that. My heart breaks for Kristi, Ryan, their families, Tracy, Laura and everyone who couldn't help but like the guy. He's among the best friends I've ever had, and I'm confident that I'm among many who feel that same way.

Rest Well and God Bless Jer.
